

Clement Elementary School

Milwaukee, WI

Summary Scope of Work:

Jones Payne provided design/technical document review and construction oversight services for the window replacement at the Clement Elementary School in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Jones Payne reviewed 90 and 100% construction documents, and the proposed treatments which included the installation of acoustical doors and windows, extensive ceiling replacement, as well as the introduction of a new central air conditioning system. Construction phase activities included selective review of contractor submittals, periodic construction observation and full-time Resident Inspection services.

Building Area: 47,200 sq. ft
Construction Cost: $1,700,000
Construction Completion: January 2001

For more information please contact Eric Raboin in our Boston Office at (617) 790-3747 or email him at eraboin@jonespayne.com.